

Public History Talk

By Dr Jérôme aan de Wiel
School of History, UCC

"Ireland's post-war foreign children, 1945-1950"

"After the Second World War, about 1100 French, German, Austrian and Jewish children came to Ireland for periods of recuperation. This paper tells some of their stories and explains how Ireland welcomed them. Photographs will be shown".

Where: Number 1 Pery Square, Limerick City

When: 8 pm 13th May

Price: 10 euros

In aid of the St Michael's N.S Building Fund.