Admission Policy

School Patron

Right Reverend Doctor Kenneth Kearon
Church of Ireland (Anglican Bishop of the United Dioceses of Limerick & Killaloe)

1. Introduction

This Admission Policy complies with the requirements of the Education Act 1998, the Education (Admission to Schools) Act 2018 and the Equal Status Act 2000. In drafting this policy, the board of management of the school has consulted with school staff, the school patron and with parents of children attending the school.

The policy was approved by the school patron on 15th June, 2021. It is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy, on request, to any person who requests it.

The relevant dates and timelines for Saint Michael's National School admission process are set out in the school's annual admission notice which is published annually on the school's website at least one week before the commencement of the admission process for the school year concerned.

This policy must be read in conjunction with the annual admission notice for the school year concerned.

The application form for admission is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy on request to any person who requests it.

2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Saint Michael's N.S. is a co-educational National School under the patronage of the Church of Ireland (Anglican Bishop of the United Dioceses of Limerick & Killaloe), the present Patron being the Right Reverend Doctor Kenneth Kearon.

“Church of Ireland/Anglican” ethos in the context of a Church of Ireland primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Anglican Christian tradition. This seeks to nurture and encourage the formation of the intellectual, academic, sporting, social and religious abilities of each child within the framework of the community of faith. A Church of Ireland ethos encourages intellectual diversity of thought and encourages the individual to seek to understand themselves, the world around them and the connection between the world and the Divine. This understanding of school ethos promotes pluralism in thought and living, in the context of a Christian school community. Drawing on its Anglican tradition, the Church of Ireland School encourages home/family involvement, highlighting the importance of the family/home in the social and emotional development of the child, and more broadly, the community of the school and church.

In line with DES advice in Rules for National Schools, that "... a religious spirit should inform and vivify the whole work of the school ...", the Board of Management of Saint Michael's N.S. and the staff seek to promote the development of honesty, truthfulness, courtesy, punctuality and responsibility in each individual pupil attending the school. A proper regard for the rights and views of others is encouraged. A caring and tolerant attitude to other people and to the environment is nurtured.

It is expected that pupils extend these values and attitudes in their dealings with other children in the school, with members of school staff, with parents, friends and others who may have occasion to visit the school.

It is the formal policy of the school to foster these attitudes both by explicit teaching in the classroom and in the informal life of the school. Pupils are encouraged to see themselves as members of a community where all are entitled to live irrespective of gender, age, socio-economic background, religion, and ability or family circumstances. It is advocated that Senior pupils adopt a caring and responsible attitude to the Junior pupils. The ethos is also fostered through regular assemblies and at the end of each term, is marked by a service to which all parents and friends are invited.

One of the primary functions of the Board of Management is to foster and uphold the characteristic spirit or ethos of the school as a Church of Ireland primary school. Determining the admission of children to the school is an essential aspect of the discharging of this function of the Board.

N.B. This school is under the patronage of the Church of Ireland. In accordance with the Department of Education & Science's advice that "a religious spirit should inform and vivify the whole work of the school ..." the Board of Management and the staff seek to create a Christian ethos and spirit within the school. Children are expected to take part in the whole life of the school.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of Saint Michael's National School shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

Our Mission Statement

Saint Michael's National School is a community where all pupils are equally valued and respected - irrespective of sex, social background, family circumstances, education achievement, physical characteristics or intellectual functioning. Pupils experience a sense of caring and belonging, they are treated fairly and their spiritual, moral and religious development is encouraged as is their intellectual, social and academic development.

It is a community where moral values such as honesty, truthfulness, justice, fairness, sensitivity to others, and civic responsibility are nurtured and protected. The justification of these qualities is based on Biblical teaching.

Saint Michael's National School is a part of the local church community and has strong links with the Parish. This, for example, is shown by the fact that pupils attend services in the local church and members of the clergy visit the school on a regular basis.

The work of the school is conducted in an atmosphere of tolerance and respect for religious differences. The admission policy of this school allows those of other religions or none to become pupils.

Religious Education occupies a central position in the school curriculum and is regarded as a core subject; generally speaking, all pupils in the school attend classes in Religious Education.

Saint Michael's National School is one where the traditions and teaching of the Church inform the position taken in regard to moral issues which arise in the teaching of secular subjects.

The school nurtures freedom of thought and a personal relationship with God. This is most evident in the teaching of Religious Education and in the prayer life of the school community. An important aspect of school life in Saint Michael's is the weekly assembly which involves the entire student body along with all staff and various members of the clergy (who attend on a rotation) from various churches in Limerick.
